

COST OF LIVING (Yearly indicative budget in Swiss francs)

Tuition and participation to study fees

Tuition fee is approximatively CHF 2000.- for a Bachelor or Master training and CHF 12'000.- for the MAS in Design for Luxury and Craftmanship.

It is subject to change for the Foundation Year for which the study tax is determined by the location of residence.

For more information, please refer to the tuition fee page on ECAL's website.

Cost of living for students (Swiss francs)

Beyond the tuition fees and contribution to educational costs, you should reckon with about CHF 3'000.- per year in additional costs directly related to your studies, broken down as follows (approximative figures):

- | | |
|--|-------------|
| ➤ books, magazines, photocopies | CHF 1'000.- |
| ➤ supplies (paper, photo equipment, films, paint, cassettes, frames, etc.) | CHF 1'400.- |
| ➤ computer (amortized over 3 years) | CHF 600.- |

Other expenses

Food costs are a minimum CHF 600.- per month, i.e. CHF 7'200.- per year.

Accommodation costs are an average CHF 750.- per month, i.e. CHF 9'000.- per year.

Finally, you should budget approximately CHF 5'000.- per year for clothes and personal items, insurance, transport and recreation.

Recap

Approximative yearly budget, excluding tuition fee, amount to:

- | | |
|--|-------------|
| ➤ additional study costs | CHF 3'000.- |
| ➤ food | CHF 7'200.- |
| ➤ housing | CHF 9'000.- |
| ➤ clothes, insurance, transport, leisure | CHF 5'000.- |

Total ~ CHF 24'200.-

*To this indicative budget you must also add the corresponding tuition fee depending on which studies you will be undertaking. (Foundation Year, Bachelor, Master or MAS)